MUSLIM NATION MOURNS LOSS OF LEADER

By Glenda Winfield

ELIJAH MUHAMMED: The softest voice, and yet a powerful one . . . prophet of black economics . . .

Elijah Muhammad, the spiritual leader of the Black Muslims in the Nation of Islam, died on February 25, 1975 at 77 years of age.

Muhammad called for unity and racial purity among blacks, and dreamt of a Nation of Islam separate from whites in America and elsewhere.

With his death preceding the annual Saviour's Day celebration of the Nation of Islam, over 20,000 Black Muslims are in Chicago to mourn the passing of their leader.

Born with the "slave name" of Poole in 1897, Muhammad was raised by slave parents to become the Messenger of Allah, and one of the most powerful black men in America. It is said that Muhammad's power did not stem from money or politics, for his strength was formed on a spiritual basis. According to the Muslim teachings, peace, love and justice was the Messenger's creed.

Under Elijah Muhammad's leadership the Muslim nation made notable economic gains. Their enterprises have grown to encompass banking, farming, real estate and other businesses. The trade name of 'Shabazz' today is synonymous with Muslim owner and operated businesses in America.

Wali Muhammad, the eldest son of the late Elijah Muhammad, has automatically become the next Messenger of Allah with the conclusion of his father's last breath, according to the Royal Laws of the Nation of Islam.

Bill Boosting Pay Goes Before House State Workers

A United Workers' legislative bill, calling for a $200 a month across-the-board raise for all state employees, is expected to come before the House Ways and Means committee sometime this week. House Bill 761, sponsored by Rep. Georgette Valle (D) Seattle, attacks the concept of establishing wages by prevailing rates (wages in the private sector), and calculating cost-of-living raises on percentages. The United Workers' bill calls for an across-the-board raise, which the United Workers say is the only way to stop discrimination against women and minorities and to narrow the ever-widening gap between low and high-paid workers. "Everybody has to pay the same price for bread and meat and gas. Everybody should get the same raise," said a United Workers spokesperson, adding, "Taxes on working people do not have to go up to pay state workers a living wage. Instead, food, shelter, clothing and heat must be put at the top of our legislators' priorities. Poor people will no longer bear the heaviest burden for an inflation that we did not cause!"

The spokesperson stated that those wishing to support House Bill 761 may write Rep. Georgette Valle and Rep. John Bagnariol, House of Representatives, State Legislature, Olympia, Washington 98504. Call, (toll free) 1-800-562-6000.

The fear that President Ford might not have picked distinguished men for members of his cabinet has been dissipated to the amazement of some critics and to the comfort of his party supporters.

His first two nominations for cabinet posts, Edward H. Levi and William T. Coleman jr., are men whose presence would enhance the prestige of any Administration. Both Mr. Levi, who has been nominated to be Attorney General, and Mr. Coleman, who has been nominated to be Secretary of Transportation, come from the very top of the nation's legal community. Mr. Levi had enjoyed a national reputation as a legal scholar before he assumed the presidency of the prestigious University of Chicago. Mr. Coleman, who graduated with the highest honors at Harvard Law School, has been a successful Philadelphia lawyer for the last 20 years. He served first as clerk to the famed Justice Frankfurter and later as member of the staff of the Warren Commission which investigated the assassination of President Kennedy.

The Levi nomination comes at a propitious moment when the Department of Justice has been battered by the Watergate storm that raged for so long in Washington. A dose of integrity to restore the public confidence in its exercise of justice is sorely needed in the department. No one is more adequately fitted to restore that confidence than Mr. Levi.

Perhaps not since 1920s has the reputation of the department fallen so low. Then, President Coolidge salvaged it by naming another law school dean, Harlan Fiske Stone, as Attorney General. The belief is shared by many informed persons that Levi will do for the department now what Stone did for it 50 years ago.

Mr. Coleman's specialty has been transportation law. He has been a director of Pan American World Airways. Given the problems that the transportation industry faces right now, particularly those of mass transit, the East Coast railroads, and the airlines, it is well that the new Secretary of Transportation has more than just a casual knowledge of the industry.

Considered together, the two Ford nominations should go a long way toward giving vitality and integrity to an Administration that needs new blood to help establish a healthy climate in government in Washington.

Tacoma Urban League Workshop To Develop Program Prospectus

Thomas Dixon, Executive Director of the Tacoma Urban League, announced that the Urban League offices at 1301 South K Street and 1704 South K Street will be closed Tuesday, March 4th through Friday, March 7th because of a scheduled all-staff workshop. Dixon says the aim of the workshop is to produce and agency "Program Planning Prospectus for 1975". Dixon further stated that after attending several executive development seminars, sponsored by the National Urban League relative to "Management by Objectives (MBO)," he is thoroughly convinced that this process can and will render the agency even more effective.

The workshop trainer will be Mary Miller, one of the Assistant Regional Directors from the Western Regional office of the National Urban League, located at Los Angeles. Henry Talbert, the Western Regional Director of the National Urban League, will join the proceedings on Wednesday, March 5th.

Dixon reported that the staff will aim for specific and measurable goals and objectives in the proposed Prospectus within the broad planning priorities adopted by the Urban League Board of Directors for 1974 and 1975 last fall. These six broad areas of concern are:

1. Community Development
2. Employment Development
3. Housing and Urban Development
4. Economic Development
5. Citizen Education
6. Affirmative Action

Dixon stated that he feels the planning document will be more effective with the input from the total staff which is more than sixty employees.

All Urban League Patrons are asked to bear with us during this operation shut-down.

George Hamilton Visits Clover Park Voc-Tech

Actor-Producer George Hamilton was a recent visitor at KPEC-FM at Clover Park Vocational-Technical Institute as he was interviewed for a special program over the student-operated non-commercial radio station. Pictured with Hamilton (center rear) around the table clockwise are: Donna Gregory, an elective high school student who attended Clover Park High School before enrolling at Clover Park V-TI; Greg O'Neill; Brian Dryden; Richard Hayward, and Bob Piatt, Radio-TV Studio Skills instructor.

"It was really a refreshing experience," commented actor-producer George Hamilton.

The Hollywood star recently visited Clover Park Vocational-Technical Institute as the guest of Bob Piatt, Radio-TV Studio Skills instructor.

After an interview with Brian Dryden, Donna Gregory, Richard Hayward and Greg O'Neill on KPEC-FM, Clover Park's student-operated non-commerical station, Hamilton exclaimed that "it's great to have places like this to train by really doing it. It's a tremendous opportunity."

Hamilton confessed that he was impressed by "the maturity of the students' he had met during his Lakewood Center visit.

The actor-producer was in the area as part of a cross-country media tour on behalf of the Sole Leather Council, representing the leather industry.

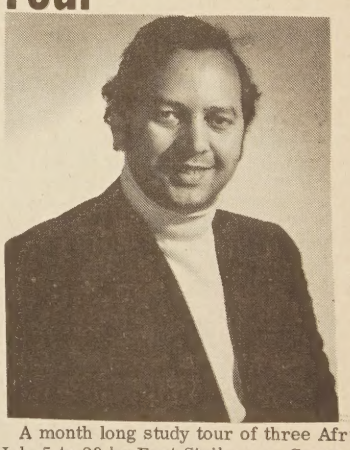
Born in Memphis, Tenn., Hamilton's own schooling took him across the United States to 25 different schools ending in 1957 when he won the "Best Actor Award" in a high school drama contest. Shortly before his 19th birthday, he was signed to a long-term MGM contract leading to an extensive career as an actor and producer.

Now happily married and the father of a four-month-old son, the actor hesitated for a moment as he reflected on his celebrated past as a bachelor playboy.

"I'm 35," he mused. "But I probably should be 65. It took me a long time to grow up."

The veteran of some 36 motion pictures, over 200 TV shows and nearly 20 stage productions obviously enjoyed chatting with the students who quizzed him about everything from bullfighting (he tried it once in Caracas until he saw the bull), to show business, Watergate and politics: "actors should stay out of politics," he insisted.

Africa - Subject of First FSCC Ethnic Heritage Study Tour



A month long study tour of three African countries will be presented July 5 to 29 by Fort Steilacoom Community College. Offered as a part of FSCC's Ethnic Heritage Study series, participants will earn ten college credits in Social Science while studying the political, economic, social and humanitarian factors which influence the cultural heritage of Afro-Americans.

The study portion will be presented by Mrs. Ella Williams, instructor, and Robert Gipson, Director of Minority Affairs, accompanying the group. The tour will include study in Liberia, The Ivory Coast and Nigeria.

In Liberia, students will attend lectures on the history, industry, geography and government at Monrovia, the capital city. Guided sightseeing is easy as the official language is English. One day will be spent touring the Firestone plantations to see Latex factories, local villas and rubber production.

Abidjan, the capitol of Ivory Coast, provides students with a view of the history and demography associated with Afro-American relations. Museums and galleries provide the portrayal of African art, while local lectures will present the stories associated with slave trading, new commerce and industrial growth.

In Nigeria, the study will center around the University of Ibadan at Lagoonram. Students will be able to compare educational techniques, visit with University students and professors, and view art and history in local galleries and exhibits.

Optional package tours and excursions are planned for students. These activities include additional study into local customs, cultural sights, and sightseeing of business and industry.

Additional bonus items of the tour include time in Paris and Copenhagen on the return from Africa to Seattle.

Cost of the study tour will be approximately $1,500 plus tuition and optional tour fees. Additional information may be obtained by contacting the Office of Minority Affairs at Fort Steilacoom.

Black Forum News

by Elton Gatewood

The Black Forum conducted its meeting as scheduled. Several points of interest were discussed. A letter was sent to Governor Evans endorsing Frank Burgess's appointment for Superior Court. The forum has attempted to become involved in concerns of all blacks; however, members thought that we were beginning to spread our interest into many areas. It was concluded that our PRIMARY concern should be Tacoma and its immediate vacinity. Mrs. Wicker, a concerned parent was present at the meeting. She expressed a problem that effected her, and has plagued the black community and other segments of society; that problem being Police Brutality. This discussion stemmed from a Valentine Skating Party in which her 13 year old daughter was unhumanly assaulted by an off-duty police officer. The forum will attempt to follow up on her progress with the authorities. The Black Political Activity Committee will hold its second meeting on March 1st from 12-2 p.m. at Brown Star Grill. The dance on Feb. 22nd held at the Caballeros Club for the "Save the Youth Task Force" was a success.

The forum agreed to contact and invite two attorneys to our meeting, so that we, the Black Community will become attuned to some of the legal processes. We were fortunate to have City Councilman Harold Moss and Frank Russell, who is an Analyst for the House Ways and Means Committee, at our meeting. They expressed their concern and interest that the Black Forum is creating in the community. It was decided that the Chairperson for each week will be responsible as signatory for all outgoing correspondence during the week that they are chairperson.

LETTERS to the Editor

Dear Mr. Beaver,

I have just finished reading the Tacoma FACTS, for February 13th. I want you to know that I am very proud of the manner in which you presented Black History, in your Newspaper.

As you know, our church has been, for many years now; one of the persons; in fact we were the first, to advertise in the Tacoma FACTS and I am very proud of the fact that you took the time, the expertise and the energies to present such a paper for our people.

I shall keep my own, in my personal library and shall refer to it in the future, because of the time that you have taken and the pain that you have gone through to bring out the facts concerning Black History Week.

Again congratulations for a very fine paper and a job well done.

Sincerely, Rev. J.A. Boles, Pastor.

Mr. Imara (Andre Young)

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad spiritual leader and teacher to the black muslims of Amerika and to millions of other black Americans died this past week, and it behooves us all to give honor and respect to the greatest black man or person (barring none) to have lived in these United States of Amerika.

Even though many of us will not readily admit it, Mr. Elijah Muhammad and his followers have literally lead us from "the valley of the shadow of death". Admittedly, we still are in big trouble as far as our lack of self-reliance is concerned. But we are a lot better off as a result of Mr. Muhammads' existence. His teachings can provide us with freedom, justice and liberty, if we would heed his erkwise wisdom, knowledge and understanding.

Mr. Muhammad believed in and taught the separation of black and white peoples in America. There can be no denying that people no matter whom they are respect power and all else it entails, regardless of their nationality, color or ethnocentricity. Of course there is no power without unity. Since black people in America don't have any power, consequently no one truely respects us, and the way to power is by establishing unity amongst black people.

As a people, we are several years over-due as far as our growth and awareness is concerned, it isn't because the teachings of Islam are obsolete. After all, Mr. Elijah Muhammad taught us for approximately forty-four years. The unfortunate thing is, we have continued to deny the relevancy of his teachings. What goes around will surely come around.

I don't imagine the white press will give any significant coverage they have in past-times given to other so-called leaders. When it is obvious that Mr. Muhammad live(s)(d) and leaves the greatest legacy for black people in Amerika the world has ever known.

We have much to grieve about at the death of Mr. Muhammad but a rejoicing can be had, if we would give our attention and dedication to what he taught. One need not "become" a muslim, to be a muslim, because as the Honorable Elijah Muhammad exclaimed it, the black man in America is muslim by his/her very nature. Mr. Elijah Muhammad provided(s) us with the knowledge of ourselves.

Black Forum Announces New Meeting Place

Every Friday evening at 5:30 p.m., the Black Forum meets at the Black Businessman's Association Club House, 2106 South J Street.

We need your participation. And during Forum meetings, citizens deal with issues confronting the Black community.

Forum meetings are also the place to catch those hard to contact people in the community; unwind from the week's activity; get up-to-date information on community concerns; remake old acquaintances; communicate with other Brothers and Sisters; and if necessary ventilate.

All Black citizens are urged to attend and participate.

Attention Youth!! The unemployment situation this summer is grave. Due to the job shortage this summer more people will be turned down. Here are some suggestions that can assist you in getting a job. First, go to school regularly and through your counselors and teachers you can get information and advice about summer jobs. When talking to your counselor, make a good impression and maybe you will get some good recommendations. Now is the time to start asking questions. A good way to get your foot in the door is to start after the spring vacation. We hope that this year employers will take an open view on the referrals of school personnel. Start now if you want the best results. Think about it and write to me, Barbara Henderson. in care of the Tacoma FACTS.

THE EXPLORING COOK

by MURIEL JANSEN

PEARL BAILEY COOKBOOK NOW IN PAPERBACK

With hard cover cookbooks so expensive, it gives me extra pleasure to write about the paperback edition of "Pearl's Kitchen." (New York: Pocket Book, 1974, $1.50.) I have read it from cover to cover and enjoyed every word. Pearl Bailey, delightful woman, dedicates her book with these words: "To Humanity, who has so surrounded me with "love," my cup runneth over--Love returned, Pearl." What a beautiful beginning for any book.

In the first chapter entitled "Mama Looking Over My Shoulder" Pearl Bailey writes about the way Mama raised the family and reminisces about her mother's Sunday morning fried chicken. The chickens were picked up early in the morning, freshly killed and cooked soon after in the big familiar skillet. They were, according to Pearl, crisp on the outside, tender and moist on the inside and cooked to the bone.

Instead of including a recipe from "Pearl's Kitchen," for this column I share my own fried chicken recipe with you--one developed in the Mazola corn oil kitchens. And with it, I urge all my readers to think about entering the 1975 National Chicken Cooking Contest. Look for the entry blanks in your local supermarket, or write to me (Muriel Jansen, Best Foods, A Division of CPC International Inc., Englewood Cliffs, N.J. 07632) and I will send you all you need to know in order to enter the contest. Maybe one of you will be the winner of a July trip to San Antonio, Texas where you will cook chicken and compete for one of the big cash prizes. The grand prize is $10,000, but there are other prizes, too. I'll tell you all about them if you will write to me. Entries must be in by April 1, 1975, and the way time flies, April is just around the corner.

HERB FRIED CHICKEN

- 1/2 cup flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon Accent flavor enhancer
- 2 teaspoons finely crushed rosemary leaves or other dried herb leaves
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 1 broiler-fryer chicken, cut in parts
- Water
- 1 pint Mazola corn oil

Mix together flour, salt, flavor enhancer, herb and pepper. Moisten chicken with water and coat with flour mixture; shake off excess. Dry on wire rack 1/2 hour. Heat corn oil in deep skillet over medium heat. Add chicken and fry, turning once, about 30 minutes or until golden brown and fork tender. Drain on absorbent paper.

Caballeros News

Greetings friends and Caballeros, we lost touch for a while, but we're now back into things. 1975 will prove interesting with our new format for bands and other entertaining events.

The coming weeks will see bands like 360°, Pleasure (from California), local groups like Street Heat and many more doing it at Cab. As the spring gains momentum more events are planned for your enjoyment so keep in touch.

It's getting warm again but not enough to really plan a picnic, or is it. Dates for patio buffets and picnics must be made in advance to assure space. Plan to bring your friends to the Club this spring and summer and take advantage of our extra large Bar-B-Que pit and patio.

Thursday night whist and pinochle games are going full blast. Both members and guests have packed the bar area waiting for a chance at their favorite game. If fun and games for fun are your game, come on down.

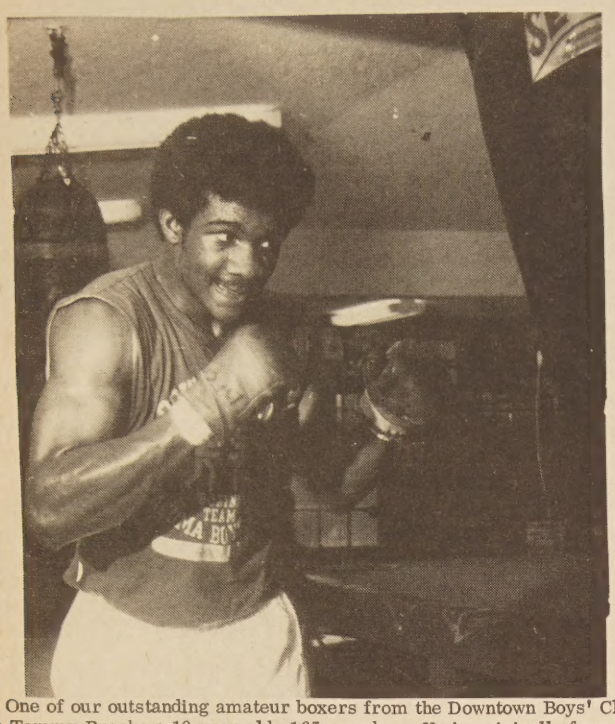
Boys Club Happenings



One of our outstanding amateur boxers from the Downtown Boys' Club is Tommy Brooks a 19 year old, 165 pounder. He is originally from Little Rock, Arkansas but when his family grew to eleven kids (including triplets) they moved to San Diego, California. Tommy started boxing at the San Diego Boys' Club at the age of 13 because of some encouragement from his uncle, Mr. Richard Allen, who was an All-Navy and all Interservice Champion.

After leaving the Boys' Club he joined Archie Modres ABC Boxing Program. While still attending High School. After graduating from high school, Tommy attended Cal-Poly State University in Pomona California but like a lot of other students, Tommy had to drop out because of money problems. He decided to join the Air Force hoping to win the All-Air Force Championships, which he did in 1974. Tommy is stationed at McCord Air Force Base and is now one of Tacoma's best middleweights ever to put on a pair of boxing gloves.

Play-offs are now starting for two of our basketball teams at the Downtown Boys' Club. They are: The TBC Blazers coached by Jim Fletcher. The Blazers will be playing at Baker Jr. High School this Wed., Feb. 26 at 7:30 pm. The other team is: The TBC Boosters coached by Jim Ervin. The Boosters will be playing at 8:30 pm on Feb. 26 at Mason Jr. High School. These teams are shooting for the city championship and we would like to see as many Boys' Club supporters as possible at these games.

Thanks to All Who Helped--Thanks to all of the parents who helped to make our Valentines Day Dance a success on Feb. 15, 1975. Music was presented by Magnum and Bro. Che Che Sears, who did a good job. All of the kids said they enjoyed themselves and are looking forward to our next monthly dance.

Important Date--Our next Parents' Club meeting will be on March 12, 1975 at our Downtown Boys' Club at 7:30 pm. We need your help, so come out and support the boys and girls of our community.

NAACP Plans Affair

The Tacoma branch will present its Seventh Annual Fashion Pageant and Dance on March 8, 1975, at the Top of the Ocean. The Fashion Pageant starts at 8:00 p.m. and runs til 10:00 p.m. Models and contestants will dance to the dynamic music of the Farside Band.

The trophy awarded during the pageant is designed with the figure of justice, symbolizing the NAACP's philosophy of justice and equality for all and the Tacoma community's effort of working together to raise funds to finance NAACP programs.

Models will get acquainted during a social on March 1, 1975 between the hours of 2:00 and 4:00 p.m. in the home of Mrs. James Walton, Models Chairperson. Assisting will be Madams: Robinson, Burgess, Stallworth, Cato and Lewis.

Pre-sale tickets are sold out, however tickets are available at the door for a donation of $3.50. For further information contact Madams: Willie Crawford, Robert Brown or James Walton.

Tacoma Rape Relief Meets March 6th

In a drive to recruit urgently needed volunteers, the Tacoma Rape Relief project invites all interested women to their next meeting, March 6, 8:00 p.m., at the YWCA, 401 Broadway.

Tacoma Rape Relief works in conjunction with the Crisis Clinic, local hospitals and law enforcement officials to provide advocate/counselor services to rape victims, as well as rape education to the community.

Foss Students Sponsor Senior Program

The student council of Foss High School voted unanimously to sponsor SHOP, a unique senior citizen service being offered by Senior Services Central.

SHOP (Students Helping Older People) will match selected students with disabled and other shut-in senior citizens. The students will read to the seniors, write letters for them, run errands, and provide friendly companionship. They will not be permitted to perform household or yard chores or to accept any pay for their services.

The Foss program will start on Monday, March 3, 1975. According to Mrs. Bertie Edwards, special projects coordinator for Senior Services Central, this is a pilot program. The ultimate goal of SHOP is to involve all junior and senior high schools in the city.

Additional information about the program may be obtained by writing to Senior Services Central at 742 Market Street or by calling 593-4800.
